

Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope that you have all had a restful holiday, the children returned to school this morning and were all happy and ready to learn. Please see the school website for information about what the children will be learning this term.

On Thursday morning (18th April) we will be holding a reading stay and learn morning at 9.00-9.30am in all classes. This offers a great opportunity for you to see first-hand how we teach reading in school.

We wish all our Muslim families the very best as they celebrate Eid. We will be celebrating with all of the children this Friday (19th April), we will be having a party from 2.15 with the children.

Please let your child's class teacher know if you would like to join us. If you want to send food in, the food must be labelled with all ingredients and must not contain nuts as we have children and staff with serious nut allergies. Please also indicate if the food is vegetarian. If you would like your child to have henna tattoos please ensure you return the permission slip, we can only use henna if we have your consent. We will be patch testing the children on Wednesday 17th, two days before the party so please make sure that you give consent in time. We are looking forward to having a wonderful celebration together.

In school we are looking forward to our upcoming class assemblies. All parents are welcome - no need for tickets! Just come to the main entrance for 9am on the day of your child's assembly. Class assembly dates: Year 2: 23.4.24, Year 4: 30.4.24, Early Years: 21.5.24

Best wishes,

Mrs Hill and Mr Bolan Ashworth
